INTRODUCTION

U3A ACT Inc. (U3A) is committed to safeguarding privacy of personal information. Overall responsibility for this policy rests with the Committee of Management. The Secretary is responsible for compliance.

We seek to abide by sections 67A and 67B of the Associations Incorporation Act 1991 which deal with members having access to the register of members and limiting access to protect the personal information of members in the register.

We are also guided, but not bound, by the Australian and Territory Privacy Principles under the Commonwealth and ACT privacy Acts. These are available on the website of the Australian Information Commissioner at: www.aaic.gov.au

POLICY

What is Personal Information and Why Do We Collect It?

Personal Information may include

- Name
- Year of birth
- Postal, street and email addresses
- Telephone contact numbers
- Previous profession or occupation
- Skills or interests
- Emergency contact details
- Images such as a photos or videos
- Other information you provide to us through member surveys or for other purposes.

We will collect Personal Information about each member directly from him/her personally. This will be done through membership and course registration. When we wish to take a photo for a U3A publication we will request anyone who does not want to be photographed to remove him or herself from the group while the photo is taken. From time-to-time, other information may be collected through surveys or by other methods.

Use of Personal Information

We collect personal information from members so that we can provide services and perform functions that are consistent with our Objects and Rules, including:

- To make classes and other activities available to members
- For communication, administrative, marketing and planning purposes
- For program development, quality control and research purposes
- To maintain accurate and up-to-date membership records.

We inform Members

- The reason why Personal Information is collected and how it is administered
- That any Personal Information held about them is accessible to them
- That we take reasonable steps to ensure Personal Information held is accurate and up-to-date.

Disclosure of Personal Information

- Personal Information will only be disclosed for purposes that are directly relevant to our Objects and Rules. It can include disclosure to volunteers, tutors or members of our Committee or employees, contractors or service providers, where it is essential to the service being provided.
- Personal Information will not be made available to others for direct marketing purposes.
- Personal Information will not be disclosed for any reason inconsistent with this policy, except when required by law or on receipt of an appropriate court order.

Security of Personal Information

- Personal Information is stored in a manner that reasonably protects it from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- Access to Personal Information is strictly controlled. Personnel are granted access only when necessary for them to perform their designated duties and only for as long as they hold office.
- Personnel authorised to access Personal Information are trained in their responsibilities involved when handling it.
- When Personal Information is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was obtained, we will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify that information.

Electronic Information

- All our electronic records, including membership data, documents and publications are stored in professionally managed cloud-hosted systems which may hold the data in overseas locations.

Our Website Cookies

- A cookie is a small piece of data stored on your computer by a website. Our website uses cookies to help us optimise the website's performance and improve the experience of its users.
